- A. If separate limits of liability for bodily injury and property damage liability are shown in the Declarations for this coverage the limit of liability for "each person" for bodily injury liability is our maximum limit of liability for all damages for bodily injury sustained by any one person in any one auto accident. Subject to this limit for "each person", the limit of liability shown in the Declarations for "each accident" for bodily injury liability is our maximum limit of liability for all damages for bodily injury resulting from any one auto accident. The limit of liability shown in the Declarations for "each accident" for property damage liability is our maximum limit of liability for all damages to all property resulting from any one auto accident. If the limit of liability shown in the Declarations for this coverage is for combined bodily injury and property damage liability, it is our maximum limit of liability for all damages resulting from any one auto accident. This is the most we will pay regardless of the number of:
1. Covered persons;

 2. A compulsory insurance or similar law requiring a nonresident to maintain insurance whenever the nonresident uses a vehicle in that state or province, your policy will provide at least the required minimum amounts and types of coverage.
- B. No one will be entitled to duplicate payments for the same elements of loss.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY REQUIRED

When this policy is certified as future proof of financial responsibility, this policy shall comply with the law to the extent required.

OTHER INSURANCE

If there is other applicable liability insurance we will pay only our share of the loss. Our share is the proportion that our limit of liability bears to the total of all applicable limits. However, any liability insurance we provide to a covered person for the maintenance or use of a vehicle you do not own shall be excess over any other applicable liability insurance.

 1. Covered persons;
 2. Claims made;
 3. Vehicles or premiums shown in the Declarations; or
 4. Vehicles involved in the accident.
- B. Any amounts otherwise payable for expenses under this coverage shall be reduced by any amounts paid or payable for the same expenses under any Auto Liability or Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Coverage provided by this policy.
- C. No payment will be made unless the injured person or that person's legal representative agrees in writing that any payment shall be applied toward any settlement or judgment that person receives under any Auto Liability or Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Coverage provided by this policy.

OTHER INSURANCE

If there is other applicable auto medical payments insurance we will pay only our share of the loss. Our share is the proportion that our limit of liability bears to the total of all applicable limits. However, any insurance we provide with respect to a vehicle you do not own shall be excess over any other collectible auto insurance providing payments for medical or funeral expenses.

- 1. Covered persons;
- 2. Claims made;
- 3. Vehicles or premiums shown in the Declarations; or
- 4. Vehicles involved in the accident.

OTHER INSURANCE If there is other Personal Injury Protection Insurance, we will pay only our share. PART C – UNINSURED/UNDERINSURED MOTORISTS COVERAGE

INSURING AGREEMENT

A. We will pay damages which a covered person is legally entitled to recover from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle because of bodily injury sustained by a covered person, or property damage, caused by an accident.

The owner's or operator's liability for these damages must arise out of the ownership, maintenance or use of the uninsured motor vehicle.

Any judgment for damages arising out of a suit brought without our consent is not binding on us. If we and you do not agree as to whether or not a vehicle is actually uninsured, the burden of proof as to that issue shall be on us.

B. "Covered person" as used in this Part means:

- 1. You or any family member;
- 2. Any other person occupying your covered auto;
- 3. Any person for damages that person is entitled to recover because of bodily injury to which this coverage applies sustained by a person described in B.1. or B.2. above.

C. "Property damage" as used in this Part means injury to, destruction of or loss of use of:

- 1. Your covered auto, not including a temporary substitute auto.
- 2. Any property owned by a person listed in B.1. or B.2. of covered person while contained in your covered auto.

3. Any property owned by you or any family member while contained in any auto not owned, but being operated, by you or any family member.
- D. I. “Uninsured motor vehicle” means a land motor vehicle or trailer of any type,
1. To which no liability bond or policy applies at the time of the accident,
 2. Which is a hit and run vehicle whose operator or owner cannot be identified and which hits:
 - a. you or any family member;
 - b. a vehicle which you or any family member are occupying; or

 3. To which a liability bond or policy applies at the time of the accident but the bonding or insuring company:
 - a. denies coverage; or
 - b. is or becomes insolvent.
 4. Which is an underinsured motor vehicle. An underinsured motor vehicle is one to which a liability bond or policy applies at the time of the accident but its limit of liability either:
 - a. is not enough to pay the full amount the covered person is legally entitled to recover as damages; or
 - b. has been reduced by payment of claims to an amount which is not enough to pay the full amount the covered person is legally entitled to recover as damages.
- II. However, “uninsured motor vehicle” does not include any vehicle or equipment:
1. Owned by or furnished or available for the regular use of you or any family member.
 2. Owned or operated by a self-insurer under any applicable motor vehicle law.
 3. Owned by any governmental body unless:
 - a. the operator of the vehicle is uninsured; and

 2. If that person or the legal representative settles the claim without our written consent.
 3. When your covered auto is:
 - a. being used to carry persons for a fee; this does not apply to a share-the-expense car pool; or
 - b. being used to carry property for a fee; this does not apply to you or any family member unless the primary usage of the vehicle is to carry property for a fee; or
 - c. rented or leased to another; this does not apply if you or any family member lends your covered auto to another for reimbursement of operating expenses only.
 4. For the first $250 of the amount of damage to the property of that person as the result of any one accident.
 5. Using a vehicle without a reasonable belief that the person is entitled to do so. This exclusion (A.5.) does not apply to you or any family member while using your covered auto.
 6. For bodily injury or property damage resulting from the intentional acts of that person.
- B. This coverage shall not apply directly or indirectly to benefit:
1. Any insurer or self-insurer under any workers’ compensation, disability benefits or similar law;
 2. Any insurer of property.

LIMIT OF LIABILITY

- A. I. If separate limits of liability for bodily injury and property damage liability are shown in the Declarations for this coverage the limit of liability for “each person” for bodily injury liability is our maximum limit of liability for all damages for bodily injury sustained by any one person in any one motor vehicle accident. Subject to this limit for “each person”, the limit of liability shown in the Declarations for “each accident” for bodily injury liability is our maximum limit of liability for all damages for bodily injury resulting from any one motor vehicle accident. The limit of liability shown in the Declarations for “each accident” for property damage liability is our maximum limit of liability for all damages to all property resulting from any one motor vehicle accident.
- If the limit of liability shown in the Declarations for this coverage is for combined bodily injury and property damage liability, it is our maximum limit of liability for all damages resulting from any one motor vehicle accident.
- This is the most we will pay regardless of the number of:
- a. Covered persons;
 - b. Claims made;
 - c. Policies or bonds applicable;
 - d. Vehicles or premiums shown in the Declarations; or
 - e. Vehicles involved in the accident.
- II. Subject to this maximum, our limit of liability will be the lesser of:
- a. The difference between the amount of a covered person’s damages for bodily injury or property damage and the amount paid or payable to that covered person for such damages, by or on behalf of persons or organizations who may be legally responsible; and

- b. The applicable limit of liability for this coverage.
- B. In order to avoid insurance benefits payments in excess of actual damages sustained, subject only to the limits set out in the Declarations and other applicable provisions of this coverage, we will pay all covered damages not paid or payable under any workers' compensation law, disability benefits law, any similar law, auto medical expense coverage or Personal Injury Protection Coverage.
- C. Any payment under this coverage to or for a covered person will reduce any amount that person is entitled to recover for the same damages under the Liability Coverage of this policy.

OTHER INSURANCE

- A. If there is other applicable similar insurance we will pay only our share of the loss. Our share is the proportion that our limit of liability bears to the total of all applicable limits. However, any insurance we provide with respect to a vehicle you do not own shall be excess over any other collectible insurance.
- B. For any property damage to which the Coverage for Damage to Your Auto of this policy (or similar coverage from another policy) and this coverage both apply, you may choose the coverage from which damages will be paid. You may recover under both coverages, but only if:
 - 1. Neither one by itself is sufficient to cover the loss;
 - 2. You pay the higher deductible amount (but you do not have to pay both deductibles); and
 - 3. You will not recover more than the actual damages.

PART D – COVERAGE FOR DAMAGE TO YOUR AUTO

INSURING AGREEMENT

- A. We will pay for direct and accidental loss to your covered auto, including its equipment less any applicable deductible shown in the Declarations. However, we will pay for loss caused by collision only if the Declarations indicate that Collision Coverage is provided.
- B. "Collision" means the upset, or collision with another object of your covered auto. However, loss caused by the following are not considered "collision":
 - 1. Missiles or falling objects;
 - 2. Fire;
 - 3. Theft or larceny;
 - 4. Explosion or earthquake;
 - 5. Windstorm;
 - 6. Hail, water or flood;

In some cases, the coverage under this endorsement may NOT be recognized by Mexican authorities and the company may not be allowed to implement this coverage at all in Mexico. You should consider purchasing auto coverage from a licensed Mexican Insurance Company before driving into Mexico.

This endorsement does not apply to trips into Mexico that exceed 25 miles from the boundary of the United States of America.

The statements that you made while you were applying for coverage are representations. To determine your premium and eligibility for coverage under this policy, we relied on the representations that you made when you applied for coverage. If you omitted material facts or made material misrepresentations that are fraudulent, false, misleading or affect the acceptance of the risk by us, we may void this policy. We may void this policy if you engaged in fraudulent conduct while applying for coverage under this policy.

Even following an accident or loss, we may still void this policy for fraud or where there was a material misrepresentation of fact by you while you were applying for any coverage under this policy, or through any notice of change that you gave under this policy. In such a case, we will not be liable for any claims that would otherwise be covered in the absence of the fraud or material misrepresentation.

If we are not allowed to void this policy, any first-party claims will be reduced by the amount of any other premium owed to us. We reserve the right to recover from you any payments made as a result of your fraud.

Any statements you made or will make in a notification of change to your policy are also considered representations and are subject to the provisions set out above.

OACM.NDPW.012014

IMPORTANT NOTICE

NON-RENEWALS FOR NOT-AT-FAULT ACCIDENTS OR CLAIMS (28 TAC §5.7016)

We may not use any of the following types of accidents or claims as the only reason for refusing to renew your personal auto policy:

1. A claim involving damage from a weather-related incident that does not involve a collision (some examples being hail, flood, tornado, winds or hurricanes);
2. an accident or claim involving damage by contact with an animal or a fowl;
3. an accident or claim involving damage caused by flying gravel, missiles or falling objects; however, if you have three of these losses in any 36-month period, we may increase your deductible to the higher of $250 or the next available deductible increment higher than your present deductible amount, at your renewal date;
4. a claim under towing and labor protection; however, if you have four claims of this type in any 36-month period, we have the option of eliminating this coverage from your policy;
5. any other not-at-fault accident or claim unless there are two or more of these accidents or claims in any 12-month period.

"Refusal to renew" means our refusal to renew your personal auto policy in the same company which originally issued the policy.

To the extent of any possible conflict between this notice and the Texas Administrative Code (28 TAC §5.7016), the latter will be controlling.

CONSUMER BILL OF RIGHTS

Personal Automobile Insurance

AVISO: Este documento es un resumen de sus derechos como asegurado. Usted tiene el derecho a llamar a su compañía y pedir una copia de estos derechos en español.

What is the Bill of Rights?

This Bill of Rights is a summary of your rights and does not become a part of your policy. The Texas Department of Insurance (TDI) adopted the Bill of Rights and requires insurance companies to provide you a copy when they issue your policy.

Texas law gives you certain rights regarding your personal automobile insurance. This Bill of Rights identifies your rights specified by rule or by state statute, but it does not include all of your rights. Also, some exceptions to the rights are not listed here. Legislative or regulatory changes to statutes or rules may affect your rights as an insured. If your agent, company, or adjuster tells you that one of these rights does not apply to you, contact TDI's Consumer Protection Program at 1-800-252-3439 (512-463-6515 in Austin), by mail at Mail Code 111-1A, P.O. Box 149091, Austin, TX 78714-9091, or by email at ConsumerProtection@tdi.texas.gov. For a list of the specific law(s) and/or rule(s) summarized in each item of this Bill of Rights, or if you have questions or comments, contact the Office of Public Insurance Counsel (OPIC) at 1-877-611-6742, by mail at 333 Guadalupe, Suite 3-120, Austin, TX 78701, or visit the OPIC website at www.opic.state.tx.us.

This Bill of Rights does not address your responsibilities. Your responsibilities concerning your insurance can be found in your policy. Failure to meet your obligations may affect your rights.

Getting information from the Department of Insurance and your insurance company

1. INFORMATION FROM TDI. You have the right to call TDI free of charge at 1-800-252-3439 or 512-463-6515 in Austin to learn more about:
 - your rights as an insurance consumer;
 - the license status of an insurance company or agent;
 - the financial condition of an insurance company;
 - the complaint ratio and type of consumer complaints filed against an insurance company;
 - use of credit information by insurance companies, including which insurance companies use it and access to each company's credit scoring model;
 - an insurance company's rates filed with the state;
 - an insurance company's underwriting guidelines (subject to exemptions in the Public Information Act, also known as the Open Records Act); and
 - other consumer concerns.

You can also find some of this information on the TDI website at www.tdi.texas.gov.

At www.helpinsure.com, Texans can find more detailed information on their current and prospective insurers. TDI, in conjunction with OPIC, maintains this website to help Texans shop for residential property insurance and personal automobile insurance. For companies writing in Texas that are in the top 25 company groups nationally, the site also includes:

- a list of insurers by county and/or ZIP code;
- detailed contact information for each insurer;
- sample rates and a brief history of increases and/or decreases in the rates;
- policy form comparisons;
- a list of policy forms, exclusions, endorsements, and discounts offered by each insurer; and
- non-confidential disciplinary actions against each insurer.

2. INFORMATION FROM YOUR INSURANCE COMPANY.

You have the right to a toll-free number to call your insurance company free of charge with questions or complaints. You can find this number on a notice accompanying your policy. This requirement does not apply to small insurance companies.

What you should know before you buy insurance

3. PROHIBITED STATEMENTS. Your insurance company or agent is prohibited from making false, misleading, or deceptive statements to you relating to insurance.
4. EXCESS LIMITS. An insurer or agent cannot require you to purchase liability limits greater than the minimum limits required by law or require you to purchase other types of coverage as a condition of offering or renewing insurance. The current minimum limits are 30/60/25, which references the maximum amount the policy will pay for each accident: $30,000 per person for a bodily injury claim /$60,000 for all bodily injury claims combined /$25,000 for property damage claims per accident.

NOTE: Texas law requires that automobile insurance policies include personal injury protection (PIP) and uninsured motorist protection (UM/UIM) unless you reject these coverages in writing. Also, as a condition of your automobile loan, your lender may require you to purchase other types of coverages, such as collision or comprehensive coverage, to pay for any damage to your vehicle.

5. CREDIT INFORMATION. An insurance company cannot deny you insurance solely on the basis of credit information. Insurers who use credit information must also consider other underwriting factors independent of credit information when deciding whether to offer coverage. (For additional information see section of this Bill of Rights titled What you should know about insurance companies' use of credit information.)
6. SAFETY NET. You have the right to buy minimum liability, personal injury protection, and uninsured motorist insurance through the Texas Automobile Insurance Plan Association, also known as TAIPA, if you have been denied coverage by two insurance companies.
7. PAYMENT PLANS. You have the right to pay your automobile insurance premium in installments. Insurance companies will charge a fee for each installment.
8. ELECTRONIC PAYMENTS. If you authorize your insurer to withdraw your premium payments directly from your financial institution, your insurer cannot increase the amount withdrawn unless:

- the insurer notifies you by U.S. mail of the increase in premium at least 30 days prior to its effective date; and
- you do not notify the insurer that you object to the increase in the amount to be withdrawn at least five days prior to the increase.

The notice provided by the insurer must include a toll-free number, a mailing address and an email address (if applicable), through which you can contact the insurer to object to the increase.

NOTE: This does not apply to premium increases specifically scheduled in the original policy, to increases based on policy changes you request, or to an increase that is less than $10 or 10 percent of the previous month's payment.

9. NOTICE OF REDUCED COVERAGE. If an insurer uses an endorsement to reduce the amount of coverage provided by your policy, the insurer must give you a written explanation of the change made by the endorsement. The insurer must provide the explanation not later than the 30th day before the effective date of the new or renewal policy. An insurance company cannot reduce coverage during the policy period unless you request the change. If you request the change, the company is not required to provide notice.
10. EXPLANATION OF DENIAL. Upon request, you have the right to be told in writing why you have been denied coverage. The written statement must fully explain the decision, including the precise incidents, circumstances, or risk factors that disqualified you. It must also state the sources of information used.

NOTE: The obligation to provide a written explanation applies to insurance companies directly. An independent agent does not have a specific duty to quote the lowest possible rate to a consumer or to provide a written statement explaining why the agent did not offer the consumer the lowest possible rate.

11. RATE DIFFERENTIAL WITHIN A COUNTY. If an insurance company subdivides a county for the purpose of charging different rates for each subdivision, the difference between the lowest and the highest rate cannot exceed 15 percent unless actuarially justified.
12. RIGHT TO PRIVACY. You have the right to prevent an insurance company, agent, adjuster or financial institution from disclosing your personal financial information to companies that are not affiliated with the insurance company or financial institution. Some examples are income, social security number, credit history, and premium payment history.

If you apply for a policy, the insurance company or financial institution must notify you if it intends to share financial information about you and give you at least 30 days to refuse. This refusal is called "opting out." If you buy a policy, the insurance company or financial institution must tell you what information it collects about you and whether it intends to share any of the information, and give you at least 30 days to opt out. Agents and adjusters who intend to share your information with anyone other than the insurance company or financial institution must give you similar notices.

You can opt out at any time. Your decision to opt out remains in effect unless you revoke it.

These protections do not apply to information:

- publicly available elsewhere;
- insurance companies or financial institutions are required by law to disclose; or
- insurance companies or financial institutions must share in order to conduct ordinary business activities.

What you should know about cancellation and nonrenewal

Cancellation means that before the end of the policy period the insurance company:

- terminates the policy;
- reduces or restricts coverage under the policy; or
- refuses to provide additional coverage to which you are entitled under the policy.

Refusal to renew and nonrenewal mean the policy terminates at the end of the policy period.

The policy period is shown on the declarations page at the front of your policy.

13. LIMITATION ON CANCELLATION. After your initial policy with your company has been in effect for 60 days, that insurance company cannot cancel your policy unless:

- you don't pay your premium when due;
- you file a fraudulent claim;
- your driver's license or car registration is revoked or suspended;
- the driver's license of any household resident or person who customarily drives a covered auto is suspended or revoked. If you agree to exclude coverage for that person, the insurance company cannot cancel your policy for this reason; or
- TDI determines continuation of the policy would result in violation of insurance laws.

14. NOTICE OF CANCELLATION. To cancel your policy, your insurance company must mail notice at least 10 days prior to the effective date of the cancellation. Your policy may provide for even greater notice.

15. POLICYHOLDER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL. You have the right to cancel your policy at any time and receive a refund of the remaining premium. The refund will be paid to you unless your premium was financed through a premium finance company. In that case, the refund will be paid to the premium finance company to reduce the amount you owe on your loan.

16. CHANGE IN MARITAL STATUS. If your marital status changes, you have the right to continue your insurance coverage. You have a right to a new policy in your name that has coverages which most nearly approximate the coverages of your prior policy, including the same expiration date. The insurance company cannot date the new policy so that a gap in coverage occurs.

17. NOT-AT-FAULT CLAIMS. Your insurance company cannot refuse to renew your policy solely because of any of the following types of claims:

- claims involving damage from a weather-related incident that does not involve a collision, like damage from hail, wind or flood;

- accidents or claims involving damage by contact with animals or fowls;
 - accidents or claims involving damage caused by flying gravel or flying objects; however, if you have three of these claims in a three-year period, the insurance company may raise your deductible on your next renewal date;
 - towing and labor claims; however, once you have made four of these claims in a three-year period, the company may eliminate this coverage from your policy on your next renewal date; and
 - any other accident or claim that was not your fault unless you have two or more of these claims or accidents in a one-year period.
18. USE OF AGE TO NONRENEW. Your insurance company cannot refuse to renew your policy based solely on the age of any person covered by the policy. This includes placing you in a higher priced company or requiring a named driver exclusion for a teenager who reaches driving age.
19. USE OF CREDIT INFORMATION TO NONRENEW. An insurance company cannot refuse to renew your policy solely on the basis of credit information. Insurers who use credit information must also consider other underwriting factors independent of credit information when deciding whether to renew coverage. (For additional information see the section of this Bill of Rights titled What you should know about insurance companies' use of credit information.)
20. LENGTH OF POLICY TERM. If the term of your insurance policy is less than one year, your insurance company must renew that policy until it has been in effect for one year. Your insurance company may only refuse to renew your policy effective on the anniversary of the policy's original effective date. For instance, if your policy was originally effective on January 1, Year 1, the insurance company must renew your policy to provide coverage until January 1, Year 2, and thereafter, may only refuse to renew your policy effective January 1 of any subsequent year.
21. NOTICE OF NONRENEWAL. If the insurance company does not mail you notice of nonrenewal at least 30 days before your policy expires, you have the right to require the insurance company to renew your policy.
22. EXPLANATION OF CANCELLATION OR NONRENEWAL. Upon request, you have the right to a written explanation of an insurance company's decision to cancel or non-renew your policy. The written statement must fully explain the decision, including the precise incidents, circumstances, or risk factors that disqualified you. It must also state the sources of information used.

What you should know when you file a claim

23. FAIR TREATMENT. You have the right to be treated fairly and honestly when you make a claim. If you believe an insurance company has treated you unfairly, call the Department of Insurance at 1-800-252-3439 (512-463-6515 in Austin) or download a complaint form from the TDI website at www.tdi.texas.gov. You can complete a complaint form on-line via the Internet or fax it to TDI at 512-475-1771.
24. SETTLEMENT OFFER. You have the right to reject any settlement amount, including any unfair valuation, offered by the insurance company. If you reject a settlement offer, your options include continuing to negotiate with the insurer or pursuing legal remedies, such as mediation, arbitration, or filing a lawsuit.

25. EXPLANATION OF CLAIM DENIAL. Your insurance company must tell you in writing why your claim or part of your claim was denied.
26. TIME FRAMES FOR CLAIM PROCESSING AND PAYMENT. When you file a claim on your own policy, you have the right to have your claim processed and paid promptly. If the insurance company fails to meet required claims processing and payment deadlines, you have the right to collect 18 percent annual interest and attorney's fees in addition to your claim amount.

Generally, within 15 calendar days, your insurance company must acknowledge receipt of your claim and request any additional information reasonably related to your claim. Within 15 business days after receipt of all requested information, the company must approve or deny your claim in writing. The law allows the insurance company to extend this deadline up to 45 days if it notifies you that more time is needed and tells you why.

After notifying you that your claim is approved, your insurance company must pay the claim within five business days.

If your claim results from a weather-related catastrophe or other major natural disaster as defined by TDI, these claims handling deadlines are extended for an additional 15 days.

27. CHOICE OF REPAIR SHOP AND REPLACEMENT PARTS. You have the right to choose the repair shop and replacement parts for your vehicle. An insurance company may not specify the brand, type, kind, age, vendor, supplier, or condition of parts or products used to repair your automobile. The insurance company must provide you notice of the above requirements as follows:
- claims submitted by telephone – written notice within three business days or immediate verbal notice, followed by written notice within 15 days;
 - claims submitted in person – immediate written notice at the time you present your vehicle to an insurer or an insurance adjuster or other person in connection with a claim for damage repair; or
 - claims submitted in writing – written notice must be provided within three business days of the insurance company's receipt of the notice.

28. DEDUCTIBLE RECOVERY. If another person is liable for damage to your auto and you filed a claim and paid a deductible on your own policy, your insurance company must make a reasonable and diligent effort to recover the deductible from that person within twelve months from the date your claim is paid. If not, your company must:

- authorize you, at least 90 days prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations, to pursue your own collection efforts, or
- refund your deductible.

29. NOTICE OF LIABILITY CLAIM SETTLEMENT. Your insurance company must notify you if it intends to pay a liability claim against your policy. The company must notify you in writing of an initial offer to compromise or settle a claim against you no later than the 10th day after the date the offer is made. The company must notify you in writing of any settlement of a claim against you no later than the 30th day after the date of the settlement.

30. INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED FOR CLAIM PROCESSING. You have the right to refuse to provide your insurance company with information that does not relate to your claim. In addition, you may refuse to provide your federal income tax records unless your insurer gets a court order or your claim involves lost income or a fire loss.

What you should know about prohibited discrimination

31. PROTECTED CLASSES. An insurance company cannot discriminate against you by refusing to insure you; limiting the amount, extent or kind of coverage available to you; charging you a different rate for the same coverage; or refusing to renew your policy:
- because of race, color, religion, or national origin; or
 - unless justified by actual or anticipated loss experience, because of age, gender, marital status, geographic location, or disability or partial disability.

32. UNDERWRITING GUIDELINES. Underwriting guidelines may not be unfairly discriminatory and must be based on sound actuarial principles.

33. EQUAL TREATMENT. Unless based on sound actuarial principles, an insurance company may not treat you differently from other individuals of the same class and essentially the same hazard. If you sustain economic damages as a result of such unfair discrimination, you have the right to sue that insurance company in Travis County District Court.

If your suit prevails, you may recover economic damages, court costs and attorney and necessary expert witness fees. If the court finds the insurance company knowingly violated your rights, it may award up to an additional $25,000 per claimant.

You must bring the suit on or before the second anniversary of the date you were denied insurance or the unfair act occurred or the date you reasonably should have discovered the occurrence of the unfair act. If the court determines your suit was groundless and you brought the lawsuit in bad faith, or brought it for the purposes of harassment, you will be required to pay the insurance company's court costs and attorney fees.

What you should know about insurance companies' use of credit information

34. REQUIRED DISCLOSURE. If an insurance company uses credit information to make underwriting or rating decisions, the company must provide you a disclosure statement within 10 days after receiving your completed application for insurance.

The disclosure indicates whether the insurer will obtain and use your credit information and lists your specific legal rights, including:

- credit information insurance companies cannot use against you;
- how you can get reasonable exceptions that your insurer is required to make to its use of credit information if certain life events, such as divorce, death of a close family member, or identity theft, hurt your credit;

- the notice* an insurer must send you when making a credit-based decision that harms your ability to get or keep insurance or requires you to pay a higher premium; and
- how you can dispute credit information and require an insurer to re-rate your policy if the rate was increased because of inaccurate or unverifiable credit information.

*The notice must include a description of up to four primary factors that influenced the action taken by the insurer.

Insurers must use the disclosure form (CD-1) adopted by the commissioner or an equivalent disclosure form filed prior to use with TDI. The CD-1 is available at www.tdi.texas.gov/forms/pcpersonal/pc328crtdts.pdf or by calling 1-800-252-3439. Additional information regarding insurers' use of credit information is available at www.tdi.texas.gov/credit/credit.html.

What you should know about enforcing your rights

35. FILING YOUR COMPLAINTS. You have the right to complain to TDI about any insurance company and/or insurance matter and to receive a prompt investigation and response to your complaint. To do so, you should:
- call TDI's Consumer Help Line at 1-800-252-3439 (512-463-6515 in Austin) for service in both English and Spanish;

NOTE: TDI offers interpreter services and publications in alternate formats. Persons needing more information in alternate layouts or languages can call the TDI Consumer Help Line listed above.

36. RIGHT TO SUE. If an insurance company violates your rights, you may be able to sue that company in court, including small claims court, with or without an attorney.
37. BURDEN OF PROOF. If you sue to recover under your insurance policy, the insurance company has the burden of proof as to any application of an exclusion in the policy and any exception to or other avoidance of coverage claimed by the insurer.
38. REQUESTING NEW RULES. You have the right to ask in writing that TDI make or change rules on any automobile insurance issue that concerns you. Send your written request to: Texas Department of Insurance, Attn: Commissioner (113-2A), P.O. Box 149104, Austin, TX 78714-9104.
